Dear Parents and Carers,

We are all deeply shocked by the events that took place outside St Aloysius church on Saturday afternoon. The pupils have all been spoken to today by either myself or another member of the senior team in assembly or tutor time. I also met with the police who assured me there is no threat to anyone attending Maria Fidelis school; I appreciate however that many in the wider community in Camden will still feel upset and frightened.

I have attached some leaflets from Camden for your guidance and have asked the pupils to let us know if they need any support.

Our thoughts and prayers remain with the families of all those who were injured.

Kind regards

H.M. Gill
