Growing together through Christ with courage, confidence and dignity

February 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

The NEU have informed me that the second teachers' strike day will be on Thursday the 2nd March. Due to the number of staff likely to be striking that day the school will be closed to the majority of pupils. Families of children with EHCPs or other needs will be contacted separately and offered a place at school for the day.

Staff not on strike will be in school setting work on Google Classroom. We have organised for year 11 to access an online revision skills course from 9:15am – 10:15am. Some teachers have requested to have their classes. Mr Maynard will contact parents to inform them which children are coming in to school. These students will have to come in for an 8:45am start. Please make sure they do this as it will really help their exam preparations.

The majority of year 12 and 13 subjects already have materials for their entire course available on Google Classroom, so students can use this time to catch up on or revise previous lessons, read ahead for the next part of their course, or complete past exam papers. Sixth form students who wish to make use of the study areas may come on site but must sign in and out at reception.

Thank you for your understanding.

Kind regards

H.M. Gill
