Growing together through Christ with courage, confidence and dignity

Friday 30th June 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

The NEU have informed me that there will be a further strike day on Wednesday 5th July. Due to the number of staff likely to be striking that day the school will be closed to the majority of pupils. Families of children with EHCPs or other needs will be contacted separately and offered a place at school for the day.

Staff not on strike will be in school setting work on Google Classroom.

The majority of year 12 subjects already have materials for their entire course available on Google Classroom, so students can use this time to catch up on or revise previous lessons, read ahead for the next part of their course, or complete past exam papers. Sixth form students who wish to make use of the study areas may come on site but must sign in and out at reception.

Please also note that Friday 7th July is a staff inset day as was always scheduled in the school calendar and pupils will not attend school.

Thank you for your understanding.

Kind regards

H.M. Gill
