CAMDEN
Special Parents Forum

For Camden parents and carers of children and young people (0-25yrs) with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND).

We aim to create a community of parents and carers in Camden, to share information and experiences, strengthen our common voice and improve services.

Who are we?

The Camden Special Parents Forum is run by parents who themselves have children with disabilities. The Forum is funded by the Department for Education.

We are a member of the National Network of Parent Carer Forums, which brings together the collective voice of families like ours from across England.

We work in partnership with the local authority (education, health & social care) and other service providers to influence how they commission, plan and deliver services to meet the needs of children and young people with SEND.

Want to join us?

- Come along to any of our events

- Volunteer with us

What do we do?

We run regular forums and meetings, bringing together parents with speakers from the local authority and local services:

- 1 Special Parents Forum
For all parents and carers of children and young people (0-25yrs) with special educational needs and disabilities.
- 2 Transition Forum
For all parents and carers of those aged 14+ years who are moving into adulthood.
- 3 Coffee Mornings
We also run informal coffee mornings.

You are welcome to come along to any forum meetings you would like to - they are informal, friendly and very informative!

We run a busy calendar of parent sessions throughout the term, including:

Walk & Talk on Hampstead Heath

A chance to get out for a walk, have a chat and a coffee with other parents and leave with a smile.

Yoga & Lunch

An opportunity to get together with other parents and keyworkers from KIDS, enjoy a relaxing yoga session, a free lovely lunch and a chat together.

We also run workshops on a wide range of topics, such as:

- Education, Health and Care Plans
- Annual Reviews
- SEN Support
- Wills and Trusts
- Preparing for Adulthood
